NOTICE OF HEALTH INFORMATION PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW CAREFULLY.

Introduction:

At Miles L Singer, DO, PLLC we are committed to treating and using protected health information about you responsibly. This Notice of Health Information Practices describes the personal information we collect, and how and when we use or disclose that information. It also describes your rights as they relate to your protected health information. This Notice is effective April 14, 2003 and is being provided to you in accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1966 (HIPAA) and applies to all protected health information as defined by federal regulations.

Understanding Your Health Record/Information

Each time you visit Miles L Singer, DO, PLLC a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment, any medications and a plan for future care or treatment. This information is often referred to as your health or medical record serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment
- Obtaining payment for treatment
- Means of communication among the many health care professionals who contribute to your care
- Legal document describing the care you received
- Means by which you or a third-party payer can verify that services billed were actually provided
- A tool in educating health care professionals
- A source of data for medical records
- A source for information for public health care officials charged with improving the health of this state and nation
- A tool with which we can assess and continually work to improve the care we render and the outcomes we achieve. Your health record or medical record may also serve as a source of data for our planning and marketing, but you have certain rights, as described below, with respect to the use and disclosure of you record for this purpose.

Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to ensure its accuracy, better understand who, what, when, where, and why others may access your health information, and make informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

Your Health Information Rights

Although your health record is the physical property of Miles L Singer, DO, PLLC, the information belongs to you.

We reserve the right to change our practices and to make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. Should our information practices change we will post a revised notice in our office and upon request you may obtain a written copy.

We will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization, except as described in this notice. We will also discontinue using or disclosing your health information after we have received a written revocation of the authorization according to the procedures included in the authorization as provided for in 45 CFR 164.524 apply.

If you have any questions and would like additional information, you may contact the practice's Privacy Officer, at (248) 926-1960.

You may request an amendment to your healthcare information only if you believe it to be incorrect or incomplete. To do so you must submit in writing a reason, that supports your request. Any request not submitted in writing with a valid reason will be denied. Opinion is not a valid reason.

If you believe your privacy rights under HIPAA have been violated, you can file a complaint with our Privacy Officer, or with the Office of Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint with either the Privacy Officer or the Office of Civil Rights.

Examples of Disclosures for Treatment, Payment and Health Operations

We will use your health information for treatment.

For Example: Information obtained by a medical assistant, physician, resident, or other member of your health care team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. Your physician will document in your record his or her expectations of the members of your health care team. Members of your health care team will then record the actions they took and their observations. In that way, the physician will know how you are responding to treatment.

We will also provide your primary physician or a subsequent health care provider with copies of various reports that should assist him or her in treating you.

We will use your health information for payment.

For example: A bill may be sent to you or a third party payer. The information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures and supplies us.
